

Qualified expenses for your HSA

Use your BenefitWallet® Health Savings Account (HSA) to pay for a broad range of expenses for you, your spouse and your tax dependents – even if they aren't covered by your health plan. When you spend your HSA funds on qualified expenses, you can save up to 35% on your health care costs.

What qualifies?

Doctors, labs and hospitalization

Ambulance services, doctor office visits and procedures, fertility treatments, health plan deductibles and copayments, hospital services, laboratory fees, substance abuse treatment, surgeries (excluding cosmetic), vasectomy

Medicine and medical devices

Artificial limbs, bandages, blood sugar tests, breast pumps and lactation aids, crutches, feminine products, hearing aids and batteries, insulin, over-the-counter medicine, prescription drugs, walkers, wheelchairs, hand sanitizer

Dentists and orthodontics

Dental treatments, braces, dentures/ artificial teeth, extractions, teeth cleanings, tooth removal, x-rays

Eye doctor, glasses and contacts

Examinations, eye glasses, eye surgery, lasik/ laser surgery, contact lenses, saline solution

Alternative care and special services

Acupuncture, alcohol/drug treatment, chiropractic care, long-term care services (limited), physical therapy, psychiatric care, special education for learning disabilities, speech therapy, some weight loss programs

Need more information?

View a full list of qualified expenses at irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p502.pdf.

Save your receipts.

Keep detailed receipts for all HSA expenses in case of an IRS audit.

We're here to help

Visit mybenefitwallet.com or call the BenefitWallet Service Center at 855.234.7722.